Movie S1. A movie demonstrating the dynamic random-dot stereogram. Red-green glasses are needed to view the movie. An observer was asked to focus on the fixation point in the center and indicate whether the dots in the central square area were closer or farther than the dots in surrounding area. This movie is provided only as a demonstration. In the real experiment, the observer was asked to view stimuli (Fig. 6A) through a stereoscope.